Mayor's Note

To begin this month, I was privileged on invitation from the Saskatchewan Protocol Office, to attend a reception with the Prime Minister and Canada's Premiers. The event was held at the Remai Art Gallery in Saskatoon. It was an honour to be invited as a small-town Saskatchewan Mayor and to be present with many others from Provincial and Federal Governments, along with business, First Nations leadership and other community representatives. Greetings and comments were given by Saskatoon Mayor Cynthia Block, Premier Moe and Prime Minister Carney. The mood of the event was celebratory, warm and collegial. Amidst the event, I did get a bit of Town business discussed with a couple of SK government ministers. It was also a real pleasure to meet Saskatchewan's recently appointed Lieutenant Governor, Bernadette McIntyre. She was curious to know what's happening in Rosthern and looks forward to attending a function in our community. So, a unique event for me to have been invited, and on behalf of Rosthern, a great opportunity to represent our wonderful community.

Dennis Helmuth, Mayor
